COME ONE and ALL

We encourage young friends to attend! There will be activities and get-togethers for all ages, including intergenerational possibilities like hiking, crafts, cooking, creativity, and games. To attract more families with children to attend, we can offer registrants 20 free passes to Meow Wolf, a family-friendly interactive art installation in Santa Fe. We will make every effort to work with you to arrange childcare for babies and toddlers. The amazing First Day School teachers, Beverley and Ariel from Santa Fe MM will be coordinating the program for children/teens of all ages and you are welcome to contact them in advance with your ideas or any special requests. To encourage attendance, all children and youth come free to NM Regional Meeting.

Lodging: There are a number of lodging options at Camp Stoney.

A-Frame Cabins:

These have 7 bunk beds each, with a single shower and toilet between two open rooms, and are heated. Two A-Frames are wheelchair accessible. There are also nearby heated shower houses. There is enough floor space so that top mattresses can be pulled to the floor. You must provide your own bedding, pillows, towels, and toiletries. We will designate one A-Frame for men, one for women, and one or two for families. We will be charged $225 for two nights for each A-Frame cabin. Suggested cost per adult for 1 night $10, 2 nights $20. Children and youth free.

Retreat House:

There are 5 bedrooms and 3 baths, with 2 of the bedrooms having private bath. One room has a king bed, 3 have queen beds, and 2 have a twin bed. Bedding and towels are supplied. Rooms are large enough so that a cot can be added for an additional person. There is a large open dining/living room area in which children's activities may be held. We will be charged $850 for two nights for the Retreat House. Suggested cost per adult for 1 night $36.00, 2 nights $72.00. Children and youth free.

Main Lodge:

The Main Lodge, where most of our activities will take place, has two wheelchair accessible bedrooms, each with a queen bed and a bathroom with a shower. Bedding, but not towels, are supplied. These will be reserved for people who find walking between the buildings difficult. We will be charged $1550 for two nights at the Main Lodge, which includes the meeting space and the kitchen. Suggested cost per adult for 1 night $36.00, 2 nights $72.00.

Camping:

Camping in RV's or other vehicles (no hook-ups) and tenting on the grounds at Camp Stoney is free. There are heated shower houses near the A-Frames that can be used by campers.

Friends hospitality in the Santa Fe area may also be an option, but we are hoping to fill spaces at Camp Stoney, so we can recoup costs.

Costs:

We have always wanted to ensure that no one is prevented from attending our Regional Meeting due to a lack of funds. Following the example of our Yearly Meeting, Pay-As-Led allows Friends to prayerfully consider both the cost of attending Regional Meeting and their own financial situation, leading some to be generous to assure others' attendance, and some to allow others to support their attendance. No one will be required to ask for financial aid. Whatever you can or cannot pay, we want you at Regional Meeting! We especially want families with children to come, no matter your financial situation.

Pay-As-Led relies on your integrity as a Friend, in the faith that each of us will contribute what we are prayerfully led. If we see that we are coming up short, we will announce that before our gathering is over. We are taking a leap of faith together and trusting that you will give what you are led and able in a spirit of generosity and abundance.
